Joining Forces:

“Collaboration in the Treatment and Management of Sexual Abuse”

The Arkansas Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (AR-ATSA) and Northwest Counseling Associates (NCA) are proud to present the Second Annual AR-ATSA Regional Conference “Joining Forces: Collaboration in the Treatment and Management of Sexual Abuse” to be held on December 4 and 5, 2008. This year’s conference is co-sponsored by the University of Arkansas Counselor Education Program and Chi Sigma Iota: Counseling Academic and Professional Honor Society International: Rho Alpha Beta Chapter.

The conference will again be held at the University of Arkansas’s Continuing Education Building adjoining the Cosmopolitan Hotel on the beautiful and festive Downtown Square in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Attendance is limited to 150 mental health professionals.

Last year’s conference keynoted by David Prescott, President of the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA) was attended by over 100 mental health professionals working in the field of sexual abuse management and prevention. This year we are excited to announce Jacque Page, Psy. D., Professor of Psychiatry, University of Tennessee, Memphis, and At Large Board Member of the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA) and The Honorable Wiley Branton Jr., Pulaski and Perry County Circuit Judge as our keynote presenters.

Event sponsorship options are available to enable your organization to have a presence at the AR-ATSA conference and enable your organization to access AR-ATSA conference attendees without an exhibit. Sponsorships will be acknowledged in the conference program and each day during the PowerPoint announcements prior to each session. Sponsors will also have signage where appropriate. Exhibit Booth space is also available on a limited basis.
